THE OWOSSO TIMES. Entered at the Postoffice in Owosso for transmission as second-class matter.

OWOSSO, FRIDAY, MARCH 5, 1897.

LOCAL NEWS.

We call especial attention of our readers and advertisers to the amount and quality of the matter in this issue; the full page report of the Y. M. C. A. convention, Mc Kinley's cabinet page, McKinley's inaugural address and two columns about inauguration exercises; four columns of interesting matter about the state legislature; four col umns on timely topics, Washington and CITIZENS' SAVINGS BANK other correspondence, editorial and local matter, continued story, etc. We ask a comparison with any paper to Central Michigan and especially in Shiawassee county. We have more home advertising than any weekly in the county, more foreign advertising than any paper in this section and yet we have more reading matter than any other newspaper. We have and always have had the largest, the best and the most satisfactory circulation for advertisers and the paper is regularly and neatly printed and is looked for by its readers.
